Code of Conduct

Kestrel Data Labs Pvt. Ltd. (fictional company created for this project)

1. Our principles

Employees are expected to act with integrity, treat colleagues and customers with respect, and comply with all applicable laws. Managers have an additional duty to model these behaviours.

2. Gifts and hospitality

Employees may accept gifts from business partners only if the value is INR 3,000 or less and the gift is not cash or a cash equivalent. Any gift above INR 3,000 must be declined or declared to the Compliance team within 7 days.

3. Conflicts of interest

Employees must disclose any actual or potential conflict of interest, such as a second job, a family member working for a supplier, or an investment in a competitor, to their manager and to Compliance through the annual declaration and whenever the situation changes.

4. Anti-harassment (POSH)

The company has zero tolerance for sexual harassment. An Internal Committee (IC) is constituted under the POSH Act to receive and inquire into complaints. A complaint should be made to the IC within 3 months of the incident; the IC aims to complete its inquiry within 90 days.

5. Speaking up

Concerns about unethical behaviour can be raised with a manager, HR, or anonymously through the Ethics Hotline. Retaliation against anyone who raises a concern in good faith is a serious disciplinary offence.

6. Consequences

Breaches of this Code may lead to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.
